5. Having gotten to this stage in his gloomy dissertation, @ KUTZBACH looked up and spread out his hands and said, "of course, if I had worked for the Americans, it would be something completely different; by now I could have been in the States, living well with a secure future." He returned to this topic and to the possibility of his being included in the UJIRACO VII trip several times later, during the course of the evening. Based on my examination of @ KUTZBACH's [] file, I am positive that this was as close to an announcement of availability for recruitment by KUBARK as @ KUTZBACH has come in previous discussions with POB staffmembers. Needless to say, I did not encourage his hopes or aspirations either for recruitment, working with the Americans or UJIRACO VII.

6. @ KUTZBACH in the above discussion said that he and @ FRIESEN had discussed their problems many times and that @ FRIESEN agreed completely with him.
